DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-8, 10-11, 13-18 and 20-25 have been cancelled.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first and second paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 9, 12 and 28-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. The specification does not adequately describe how the scanning section 43 is comprised in the parsing unit 45 [figure 4].

3. Claims 9, 12, 19 and 26-38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The specification does not adequately describe how the user inputs programmable offset information.

4. Claims 9, 12, 19 and 26-38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. It is not clear what is meant by “user-programmable offset information”. It is also unclear from where the parsing unit is identifying and extracting data.

Art Unit: 2419

The Examiner has interpreted the parsing unit as identifying and extracting data from the data stream. The scanning section identifying the structural features of the packets is ambiguous because only packet sections are received at the interface. The Examiner has interpreted the scanning section as identifying structural features in the packet sections.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

5. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 19, 26, 27 and 34-38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. The claimed process is not tied to any particular machine.
